Hungry for Worship: Challenges and Solutions for Today's Church By Frank Page, Lavon Gray

Hungry for Worship takes a provocative look at ten specific worship challenges facing churches, regardless of church size, over the next decade. Through a balance of historical perspective, theological truth, and practical experience, pastor Frank Page and associate music dean L. Lavon Gray encourage pastors and those responsible for leading worship to evaluate their worship in light of these challenges. With these practical ideas, pastors and worship leaders can ensure their church is positioned to weather the changes of pop culture and experience healthy worship.

Editorial Review

About the Author

Dr. Frank S. Page is a proven leader both among his peers and those he shepherds. Having served as the president of a large evangelical entity, he has also served as a pastor of a more than 4,500-member church. He is currently the president of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, and his speaking schedule has taken him around the world. He is also the author of several books including The Nehemiah Factor, Trouble with the Tulip, Jonah (for The New American Commentary), The Incredible Shrinking Church, Commentary on Mark, and The Witnessing and Giving Life. He has served as the lead writer for the Advanced Continuing Witness Training materials. Page currently resides in Franklin, Tennessee, with his wife, Dayle.

Dr. L. Lavon Gray serves as associate dean for the School of Music at Liberty University. As part of this role, he serves as chairman of the Worship Studies Department and leads the Center for Music and Worship, which is the largest worship training program in the world. Prior to joining the faculty at Liberty University, Gray served as associate pastor for music and worship at the historic First Baptist Church in Jackson, Mississippi. He and his family reside in Madison, MS.
