Editorial Review

Review

I am so addicted to this series that I am thankful that I had part 4 on hand so that I could keep right on reading because I am not sure what I would have done not knowing what what was going to happen.

This is the best book in the series and I gave the other three five stars so what am I to give this one?

I am so glad that Wanda Brunstetter decided to do this series and I hope that she does more like this! Definitely another 5 star book!

(Tammy Graham Love 3 My Dogs 2013-04-04)

I really enjoyed The Pieces of Summer! The ending of this book was really good as it left me ready for the next one in the series. I liked the different elements Wanda mixed into the story with Jonah and Meredith's sister. I also enjoyed finally getting an update on Eddie. I feel this was a long time coming and it was nice to finally hear more about him.

I enjoyed this read. It was a quick read for me, not that the book is that long, but I was engaged in the story. I am really looking forward to the next installment in the series A Revelation in Autumn.

(Zac Weikal Zac's Blog 2013-04-24)

Wow this ends with the best cliffhanger of all 4 parts of the series. Still keeps you wanting more.

If I was not so tired I would stay up to read part 5. Still love the story, the characters and I want to know how it all ends now.

(Rhonda Laney Read A Lot Rhonda 2013-05-07)

The Pieces of Summer is the fourth book in the Discovery series, and one that I had been waiting for, for a while. What I like about these novellas is that they start up right where they leave off, which is very frustrating when you reach the end of one, but starting the next one brings it all back together!

(Samantha Bryant GoodReads 2013-05-06)

Ms. Brunstetter is a talented author and she knows how to create characters that her readers easily fall in love with while they're reading along. I'm eager to read the next installment, but I'm also saddened because I know that this book is quickly coming to an end soon. I highly recommend this fourth installment and I can't wait to continue on my journey with Meredith, Eddie and the rest of the characters in this novel.

(Diana Coyle Night Owl Reviews 2013-05-29)

I just love this author and I am enthralled with this series. Can't wait to read the next one!

(Janis Rodgers Blogspot.com 2013-06-14)

A very quick read that entices the reader for more.

(Patsy Higgason NetGalley 2013-06-27)

I'm enjoying The Discovery series by Wanda Brunstetter. The family atmosphere is intriguing and the tight-knit quality of the story is nice. The writing blends well from one scene to the next and I had to know what would happen next.

(Kim Miller Long and Short Reviews 2013-09-16)

Wanda really does a great job of representing the Amish and I'm sure they love her for the way she portrays their way of life and customs to others. It's no wonder why Wanda is one of my very favorite Amish authors. (Susan Dyer Fresh Fiction 2013-09-23)

From the Back Cover

Only months after losing her beloved husband, does Meredith dare accept help from another man?

Meredith Stoltzfus could never love anyone like she loved her husband, Luke. When a friend from her past comes by her home to offer a helping hand, Meredith hesitantly agrees. But deep down, she feels uneasy about it. How would it look to others, seeing Jonah around so often?

Meanwhile, as a young, nameless man heals and regains strength in his body, his mind grasps at every image that flits across his memory, desperate to recall his former life. . . .
