Editorial Review

Review

Love and kisses conquer all in this quirky, wise, and utterly original tale. The precocious heroine, a baby who is reluctant to be born, needs plenty of coaxing in order to leave the comfortable womb, but she eventually finds family life to be an even cozier delight. This hilarious inside-the-womb view of childbirth is a timeless reminder that newborn babies need [the love of their family] more than ... anything else!

--Parenting Magazine
