Lessons in Service from Charlie Trotter By Edmund Lawler, Ed Lawler

In the second book in the Lessons from Charlie Trotter series, the lauded chef shares his strategies for success in this guide on how to give the ultimate dining experience.

As winner of the James Beard Foundation's Outstanding Restaurant Award, Charlie Trotter and his service staff run what many consider to be America's finest restaurant. But it's not just about food in this renowned Chicago hot spot. It's about a subtle relationship between food, wine, ambiance, and service—a relationship Trotter has perfected by hiring passionate staff with the ability to surpass his incredibly high standards. In LESSONS IN SERVICE, journalist Edmund Lawler reveals the secrets behind Trotter's unequalled success and shows other businesses how to improve their levels of service. From unconventional motivational techniques, staff empowerment, and mentoring to role playing, preservice meetings, and an obsessive pursuit of excellence—Trotter leaves nothing to chance. The service is a nightly ballet that leaves guests feeling pampered, educated, and of course, wonderfully satisfied. Follow the advice of Charlie Trotter, and no matter what your business, your customers will keep coming back again and again.

- Charlie Trotter's was nominated for the James Beard Foundation's 2001 Outstanding Service Award, and the restaurant received the Beard Foundation's Best Restaurant in America Award in 2000.
- Charlie Trotter's books have sold over 300,000 copies.

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Lessons in Service from Charlie Trotter can make you feel more interested to read.
