The Black Stallion Mystery First Edition By Walter Farley

Dust jacket notes: "When three foreign colts arrived in the United States to be sold at the yearling Sales, young Alec Ramsay, who was among the first to see the, realized they were worth their weight in gold. They looked enough like his world-famed Black Stallion to have had the same sire! Yet desert records stated that such a horse was dead. Were the records wrong? Was the Black's sire still alive? Weren't the three yearling colts good evidence that he was alive? The wondrous possibility of finding the sire of the Black Stallion drove Alec to take his horse overseas. Together with his old friend Henry Dailey, they traveled a long and perilous path which led finally to a fantastic mountain retreat in a far-off land. There they sent a stud to catch a stud - with Alec riding his great Black Stallion in one of the most exciting races of all time! Here's another fine story in a series which boys and girls the world over (England, Holland, Sweden Denmark, France, Italy, Japan as well as the United States) have taken to their hearts! If you're among them or just meeting this famous horse for the first time, we know you'll enjoy riding with Alec Ramsay in his thrilling search for the sire of the Black Stallion!"
