Redemptive-Historical Hermeneutics and Homiletics: Debates in Holland, America, and Korea from 1930 to 2012 (West Theological Monograph Series) By Yung Hoon Hyun

This book focuses on redemptive historical hermeneutics and homiletics within New Testament theology. This is a valuable legacy of the Reformed tradition, despite differences in interpreting and preaching Bible texts that surfaced in Holland (1920s and 1930s) and the United States (1970s onwards) before influencing Korean Reformed churches. The background, origin, distinctiveness, and development of these theological debates is explored and evaluated before the features of redemptive history in Korea are identified. The influence of Western redemptive-historical scholars on the Korean debate are also analyzed. Here is a major and contemporary contribution to reformed-historical hermeneutics and homiletics that is relevant for Korean Reformed churches, but also for all Reformed churches worldwide.

Editorial Review

Review

"Yung Hyun's thorough yet insightful book, Redemptive-Historical Hermeneutics and Homiletics, introduces the redemptive-historical approach to the Bible and rigorously surveys how this approach has taken root in the Korean Church and especially in sermons of many pastors. I find this book to be not only historically faithful but also spiritually challenging."

--Hyung Yong Park, President, Westminster Graduate School of Theology, Jung-dong, South Korea

"In this splendid, ground-breaking work, Yung Hoon Hyun demonstrates the significance and limits of redemptive-historical preaching, carefully distinguishing the controversies that surrounded it in the Netherlands and America, and critically evaluating the current discussions in Korea. This will be of major interest to all concerned for preaching in general and for the Korean church in particular."

--Robert Letham, Director of Research, Wales Evangelical School of Theology, Brigend, South Wales --
